

ALLENTOWN PUBLIC LIBRARY

1210 W HAMILTON ST.

(610) 820-2400

January/February 2017

Programs & Events for January

Painting Class

Wednesday, January 18 @ 7Pm – 8 PM

Paint a beautiful snowy landscape on a canvas. This painting class is open to the first 20 people who sign up. Call or stop by the reference desk to sign up.

Introduction to Mufon – aliens and UFOs

Wednesday, January 25 @ 7PM – 8PM

Speaker, John Royer will share his experience of alleged UFO sightings in the Lehigh Valley. Learn about Mufon and supposed sightings of the paranormal.

FREE films on Saturday afternoons!

This monthly film series at the library will feature award-winning foreign films, independent movies, and documentaries. No ticket is required and admission is always free. For viewing audiences ages 17 and up.

Film Series: Men go to Battle

Saturday, January 28 @ 2PM

Set during the Civil War, this historical drama follows brothers Francis and Henry, whose overgrown Kentucky farm has them at loggerheads. After a fight between the two gets out of hand, Henry runs off and joins the Union army.

Book Clubs

Adult Book Club

January 24 @ 6 – 7:30

February 28 @ 6 – 7:30

Young at Heart Book Club

Share your love of Young Adult books. For Adults

January 10 @ 6:30 – 7:30

February 14 @ 6:30 – 7:30

Reserve your copy of one of these books at the reference desk.

Winter Reading Club

Bundle up with a book and enter a chance to win a prize for every book you read! Sign up online or at the reference desk.

Tech Thursdays

Beginning January 19 and running every Thursday from 9:30 – 11. Each class will cover various computer topics and skills. Topics will be posted at the reference desk.

Sign up at the reference desk*

WiFi Printing

Did you know you can print from home?

From the Library homepage (www.allentownpl.org), click on WiFi Printing image in the top banner.

Follow the instructions in the 3 Red boxes, from left to right.

A file must be saved to your device in order to “Browse for file”.

To print a PDF from a secure login (like a pay stub), save the file. Then browse for the file on your device.

ALLENTOWN PUBLIC LIBRARY

1210 W HAMILTON ST.

(610) 820-2400

January/February 2017

Programs & Events for February

Photography Workshop

Wednesday, February 1 @ 7PM – 8PM

Dans Camera City will provide an introductory course on the basics of photography. Learn about the basic skills needed to take a great photo.

America on Wheels

Wednesday, February 8 @ 7PM – 8PM

America on Wheels will present an informative session on the history of automobiles. Learn about cars and all that this local museum has to offer.

FREE films on Saturday afternoons!

This monthly film series at the library will feature award-winning foreign films, independent movies, and documentaries. No ticket is required and admission is always free. For viewing audiences ages 17 and up.

Film Series: The Automatic Hate

Saturday, February 25 @ 2PM

Against his father's wishes, young Davis Green sets off to meet his long-lost uncle in upstate New York. While trying to unravel the secret that ripped their dads apart, Davis and his cousin Alexis find themselves fighting their taboo attraction.

E Resources

Overdrive is a resource that lets you download ebooks and audiobooks for free on your device or tablet.

Zinio allows you to download free magazines on your phone or tablet.

Stop by the reference department desk if you would like to learn more about these resources.

Book a Librarian

One on one personal assistance from a reference librarian. Free ONE TIME 60 minute session. Sign up online or at the reference desk.

Library Cafe

Sip on coffee and read a book
Saturdays from 2 -4 starting
January 7.

Tax Information

The library will be a tax center and provide FREE tax help starting February 7 - April 18 on Tuesdays & Saturdays @ 12 – 3. You must sign up at the reference desk for this service. LIMITED tax forms will be available at the reference desk until supplies last.

